Ahịa: Reddit
Subreddit: Forhire
Summary: This subreddit has had a lot of activity over the past week. There have been around 5-6 posts daily where open paid positions have been offered. One post that caught my eye was the “Twitter Content Creator and Engager” position. I decided to send a PM to the Redditor who posted it, and I await their reply.

Ahịa: Facebook
Group: Nigeria Graphic Artists
Summary: Most posts this week were graphic artists promoting their work. However, on the 14th, there was a post where someone said they were in need of a professional logo/flyer designer. I joined the 7 other people who commented on the thread and posted my portfolio.

Ahịa: Linkedin
Group: Virtual Assistant Career | VAnetworking.com
Summary: This group is very good for networking. Over the past week, I have seen a number of people join and introduce themselves, and I have noticed patterns in their educational & work backgrounds. A number of people from Nigeria are active and I plan on linking with them.
